Valletta, Malta

Valletta - Wonderfully converted Palazzino originally built in 1617 and located in the Capital City enjoying spectacular views of the port and the three cities from roof level. The current owners of this delightful property have ensured that it was converted to very high standards and retaining all of it's original features. Upon entering this lovely Palazzino, a welcoming hall takes you through to the court yard leading to a reading/music room and a guest single bedroom. At first floor level one finds a double bedroom and a single bedroom as well as a guest shower room serving these two bedrooms. The wide original limestone staircase continues to take you up to the Grand Sala Nobile which has been so beautifully restored into a sitting/dining room including a traditional fireplace having a wood burning stove. This lavish room is filled with natural light coming in from the traditional Maltese balcony and two large windows. On this level, one finds a kitchen/breakfast area, the main bedroom with an en-suite bathroom, and a guest toilet. At third floor level, one then finds an artist studio with an en-suite which can be easily converted into a large double bedroom.
